MEMORANDUM

Your Honor:

In a memorandum dated January 18, 2008, Pretrial Services informed the Court that the defendant was the subject of an outstanding traffic warrant ($530) in Reno, Nevada. Your Honor ordered that the defendant be allowed to travel to Reno, Nevada, to clear the warrant, at the direction of Pretrial Services.

Pretrial Services spoke to Washoe County Municipal Court and confirmed that the defendant would need to file a motion to request a hearing. At this hearing, the defendant could request a reduction in the fine and ask that the Court reinstate his previous payment plan.

Pretrial Service gave the defendant permission to travel to Reno, Nevada, the evening of February 5, 2008. Mr. Coleman presented himself to the Municipal Court on February 6, 2008, and a hearing was scheduled for February 7, 2008.

The morning of February 7, 2008, the defendant's significant other, Lily LaCuesta, called the undersigned to report that she and the defendant had been pulled over late the prior evening. Reno police officers ran the defendant's name, found the outstanding traffic warrant, and discovered another warrant (approximately $700), under the alias name, Bernard Thomas. The second warrant was related to an arrest incurred by the defendant in 2006, for Possession of Marijuana. Mr. Coleman was taken into custody. Ms. LaCuesta indicated that she was trying to raise bail and would keep the undersigned officer apprised.

On February 8, 2008, Ms. LaCuesta informed this officer that she anticipated the defendant's release from custody late that night. The undersigned officer requested that she drive the defendant back to Cornell Corrections on Saturday, February 9, 2008. On February 9, 2008, this officer received notification that the defendant had a court hearing scheduled, in Reno, on Monday, February 11, 2008. As such, this officer instructed the defendant to remain at Ms. LaCuesta's house until the hearing, at which time, Ms. LaCuesta will drive him back to Cornell Corrections.

RECOMMENDATION: Pretrial Services is concerned with the defendant's ongoing contact with law enforcement, his use of aliases, and the discovery of these unresolved issues. We will closely monitor the cases in Reno, Nevada, to ensure that the defendant takes the proper steps to resolve the cases. We are not requesting additional action be taken by
